Nurturing Catholic Ethos

Season of Advent - weekly Advent liturgies and Advent mass at Christ the King December 17 th @ 9:30 am;

We have connected with Joaquin Labios (new Youth Minister at CTK) and are looking to have him start classroom visits in January;

First Class Mass of the year was November 19 th; these mini masses are always well-received by staff and students.

Christmas Spirit in Action: Christmas hampers. Providing for 13 families this year. Thanks to our community for the donations so far.

These will be delivered on December 18 th .

Academics

Currently 330 students in 12 classrooms (fall of 2022 we were 318 students in 13 classrooms); early projections have us at 351 for the fall.

November reading data (phonics/ vocabulary/ comprehension):

Grade 3 English On target

Grade 4 English 83% meeting

Grade 5 English 64% meeting

Grade 6 English 92% meeting

Grade 7 English 93% meeting

Grade 8 English 67% meeting

Safe and Orderly Environment

Lockdown drill November 24 th - great feedback from RPS and new strategies for teachers to secure their classrooms during a lockdown; Messages sent to the community reminding about the driveway loop being a no-stopping zone. We will continue finding ways to reinforce and remind;

Traffic survey with the City of Regina was completed in the spring-more to come on that in the New Year.

Reminders to students about handwashing, dressing appropriately for the weather and bringing water bottles home to be washed during cold and flu season.

Quality Relationships:

Incredibly grateful to Jim Christie and Kelly Taylor who are our basketball parent coaches;

Former student (Mya G.) coming to work with us from her university in B.C. to complete requirements for her B. Ed. Also grateful to Argyle school for their continued collaboration access to their gym for 2 volleyball tournaments in November and December.

Parent engagement in 3-way conferences remained high; most families were able to make it to the conferences on the scheduled days.

Student Opportunities:

Hosted City Finals for both Bataille des livres and Boys' volleyball; boys are city champions!

Musical practices are ramping up; performances at the beginning of February.

Basketball tryouts this week for both the boys' and girls' teams;

Advent adventures: faith experiences, service, musical chairs, sing-a-longs, record-breaking day, visits from Santa and Mrs. Claus, St

Nicholas Day, Kris Kringle Jingle and Mingle festival, Advent

Celebration of Song, 3s and 4s performing at CTK, band concert, bingo...
