Mini fundraisers throughout the week- watch Edsby for details.
Academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continue to welcome new families to our school; once all registrations processed we will be at 327 students. Highest enrolment for some time- this is a celebration! • New supports for students: 3 full-time IAs and our Classroom Complexity Teacher (Mme Lauzon)
Safe and Orderly Environment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Parking enforcement in the driveway loop - need to tighten up to ensure bus and student safety. • Yearly drills will be getting underway (fire, reverse evacuation and lockdown) • Teachers are presenting, practicing and reinforcing classroom routines and procedures. • Thanks to families for completing and submitting beginning-of-the year permission forms/demographic forms. Only about a dozen of these are outstanding- this is awesome!
Quality Relationships	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1st Annual Turkey Trot - coming October 22 Mme Millet and Mme Firnez leading Community event - wellness and fundraising initiative Buddy walk around Kinsmen park Money will be spent to replenish athletic and play equipment Incentives and goals will be communicated • Thanks CSCC for the Welcome Back Social - what a turnout! • Welcomed a number of new staff members for this school year: Mme Nwaefulu (IA), M. Jérémie (French Language Monitor), Mme Foord (OM), M. Christopherson (VP). • Staff remain grateful for involvement and engagement of our parent community, especially as we get our students started on the right foot for the new school year.
Student Opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grade 4, Grade 6/7 and Grade 7/8s have two field trips planned already this month: Journée du patrimoine at Motherwell Homestead and Treaty 4 Gathering in Fort Qu'Appelle • Extra-curricular sports seasons have started: girls' and boys' aerial football and cross-country running; • Musical practices have begun- leading up to auditions. Play this year is Honk:
